Pitney LLP (“Day Pitney”), special counsel and ordinary course professional² for the above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the “Debtors”) in their Chapter 11 cases, hereby applies for an order approving: (i) compensation in the amount of $75,532.50 for the reasonable and necessary legal services Day Pitney has rendered to the Debtors, which amount includes 80% of the fees already approved from prior monthly fee applications for July 2010 and August 2010; and (ii) reimbursement in the amount of $44.57 for the actual and necessary expenses that Day Pitney incurred in representing the Debtors (the “Application”), during the period from July 1, 2010 through September 30, 2010 (the “Fee Period”). In support of this Application, Day Pitney respectfully represents as follows:

Retention of and Continuing Disinterestedness of Day Pitney

1. On April 2, 2001 (the “Petition Date”), the Debtors each filed voluntary petitions for relief under chapter 11 of Title 11, United States Code (collectively, the “Chapter 11 Cases”). On April 2, 2001, the Court entered an order procedurally consolidating the Chapter 11 Cases for administrative purposes only. Since the Petition Date, the Debtors have continued to operate their businesses and manage their properties as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. On April 12, 2001, the office of the United States Trustee appointed: (i) a committee of unsecured creditors in the Chapter 11 Cases; (ii) a committee of asbestos personal injury claimants; and (iii) a committee of asbestos property damage claimants. On June 18, 2001, the office of the United States Trustee appointed a committee of equity security holders.

² Day Pitney’s fee requests have related only to three (3) matters for which Day Pitney was retained as special counsel to the Debtors. Following discussions with the Office of the United States Trustee and counsel for Debtors, Day Pitney has included in its fee applications all matters in which Day Pitney represents the Debtors either as special counsel or an ordinary course professional.

2. By this Court's order dated May 30, 2001 (the "Retention Order"), the Debtors were authorized to retain Day Pitney as special counsel, effective as of the Petition Date, with regard to the following three (3) matters, more particularly described in the application filed in support of such retention: (a) In re Intercat, Inc.; (b) Maryland Cas. v. W. R. Grace & Co., et al.; and (c) Gloucester New Communities Company, Inc. v. Del Monte Corporation, et al.

3. The Retention Order authorizes the Debtors to compensate Day Pitney at Day Pitney's hourly rates, which are being charged for services of this type and to be reimbursed for actual and necessary out-of-pocket expenses that it incurred, subject to application to this Court in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code, the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, all applicable local rules, and orders of this Court. A copy of the Retention Order is attached hereto as Exhibit "A."

As disclosed in the Affidavit of Anthony J. Marchetta in Support of Application of the Debtors for the Entry of an Order Authorizing the Retention and Employment of Pitney, Hardin, Kipp & Szuch LLP as Special Counsel to the Debtors (the "Marchetta Affidavit"), Day Pitney does not hold or represent any interest adverse to the Debtors' estates with respect to the matters on which Day Pitney is to be employed.

4. Day Pitney may have in the past represented, may currently represent, and likely in the future will represent, parties-in-interest in connection with matters unrelated to the Debtors and the Chapter 11 Cases. Day Pitney disclosed in the Marchetta Affidavit its connections to parties-in-interest that it has been able to ascertain using its reasonable efforts. Day Pitney will update the Marchetta Affidavit when necessary and when Day Pitney becomes aware of material new information.

5. Day Pitney performed the services for which it is seeking compensation on behalf of or for the Debtors and their estates, and not on behalf of any committee, creditor or other person.

6. Day Pitney has received payments applied for and authorized under the Interim Compensation Order.

7. Pursuant to Fed. R. Bank. P. 2016(b), Day Pitney has not shared, nor has agreed to share: (a) any compensation it has received or may receive with another party or person other than with the partners, counsel and associates of Day Pitney; or (b) any compensation another person or party has received or may receive in connection with the Chapter 11 Cases. This is the thirty-eighth quarterly application for interim compensation for services rendered that Day Pitney has filed with the Bankruptcy Court in connection with the Chapter 11 Cases.

Reasonable and Necessary Services Rendered by Day Pitney

8. Day Pitney submits this Application pursuant to the Retention Order seeking approval of: (i) compensation in the amount of $75,532.50 for the reasonable and necessary legal services Day Pitney has rendered to the Debtors, which amount includes 80% of the fees already approved from prior monthly fee applications for July 2010 and August 2010; and (ii) reimbursement in the amount of $44.57 for the actual and necessary expenses that Day Pitney incurred.

9. Day Pitney has maintained detailed records of the time expended in rendering the professional services performed on behalf of the Debtors in this case. Such time records were generated contemporaneously with the performance of the professional services described therein and in the ordinary course of Day Pitney's practice. The individual time records were recorded by the attorney or legal assistant who rendered the particular services described. Annexed hereto as Exhibit "B" is a copy of the actual time records maintained by Day Pitney for services rendered during the Fee Period.

10. Day Pitney also maintains records of all necessary expenses and disbursements (collectively, the "Expenses") incurred by Day Pitney in connection with the performance of its services. Attached hereto as Exhibit "C" is a complete breakdown of all the Expenses incurred during the Fee Period.

11. Bankruptcy Code Section 330 authorizes bankruptcy courts to award professionals employed by the Debtors under Bankruptcy Code Section 327 "reasonable compensation" for actual and necessary services rendered to the Debtors by such professionals. Under Bankruptcy Code section 330, the reasonableness of the compensation sought by a professional is determined by consideration of the nature, extent and value of such services, taking into account, inter alia, the following: (a) the time spent on such services; (b) whether the services were performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the task; and (c) the cost of comparable services for non-bankruptcy cases.

12. Day Pitney respectfully submits that the professional services which it has rendered and the expenses that it has incurred on behalf of the Debtors were necessary and have resulted in substantial benefits to the Debtors. Set forth below is a summary of the services provided by Day Pitney to the Debtors during the Fee Period. Based upon an analysis of each of the foregoing, Day Pitney respectfully submits that the compensation sought in this Application is reasonable.

Services Rendered

13. During the Fee Period, Day Pitney rendered professional legal services, on an hourly basis, to the Debtors in connection with the following matters: Chapter 11 Administration, Trenton Environmental Issues, and NJDEP v. W.R. Grace et al. Day Pitney respectfully submits that the time entries on Exhibit "B" adequately describe the services rendered on those matters.

14. A detailed summary of the engagement costs incurred for each of the above-noted matters is set forth in Exhibit "C."

Representations

15. Day Pitney believes that the Application is in compliance with the requirements of Del.Bankr.LR 2016-2.

16. Although every effort has been made to include all fees and expenses from the Fee Period in the Application, some fees and expenses from the Fee Period might not be included in the Application due to accounting and processing delays. Day Pitney reserves the right to make further application to the Court for allowance of fees and expenses for the Fee Period not included herein.

17. In summary, by this Application, Day Pitney requests approval for compensation of fees and expenses in the total amount of $75,577.07 consisting of: (i) compensation in the amount of $75,532.50 for the reasonable and necessary legal services Day Pitney has rendered to the Debtors, which amount includes 80% of the fees already approved from prior monthly fee applications for July 2010 and August 2010; and (ii) reimbursement in the amount of $44.57 for the actual and necessary expenses that Day Pitney incurred.

WHEREFORE, Day Pitney respectfully requests that the Court approve an award to Day Pitney of 100% of the reasonable and necessary professional services Day Pitney has rendered to the Debtors during the Fee Period, including the 80% already received on an interim basis by way of monthly fee applications from July 2010 and August 2010. Day Pitney respectfully requests further that all awarded fees and expenses be paid as administrative expenses of the Debtors' estates and that this Court grant such further relief as is equitable and just.
